

On June 2nd, I urge you to NOT vote for more media consolidation, but rather, to retain the current ownership rules. FCC rules should encourage, not limit, diversity of information in the mass media.